LOUISVILLE, July 22.—After valuely battling with the elements for two days, Brooklyn and Louisville at last met to-day in battle royal for two games. Louisville was victor in both, but here was glory as well for the vanquished. It was took and nail from the call "play ball" until darkness settled down on the field. It was a most stubborn contest, marked by close plays, and a surging to and fro of the fortunes of war. The men were on their mettle. In the first same irriffin and cillingman, the captains, were both put out of the game by McFarland, and Griffin fined $25. The first game was the long-stand most exciting of the year on the home grounds. The fielding was ragged for nine innings, though after that it was good work that ept the Brooklyns from scoring. Brooklyn iso hit harder, but it seemed not to be decreed east they should win. The scores:

The Philadelphians in an Uphill Fight at Hattrax. HALIFAX, July 22.-The Philadelphia-Halifax cricket series was resumed to-day, when the visitors met the Garrison cleven. It was an off day for the Philadelphians, for they made only 65 in the first innings, while Garrison put to-gether 107. Patterson, the Philadelphia capgether 107. Patterson, the Philadelphia captain, was particularly unfortunate, his wicket being taken at the very beginning of the match. He skied a ball from Corporal Prentice, and was caught at mid-on by Major Edwards. The only Philadelphia double figures were made by Brockle and E. W. Clarke.

Lieuta Austin, Neve, and Maurice, and Major Edwards for Garrison, each gave a good exhibition of batting, and contributed 82 of the 107 runs made. Philadelphia's fielding was again much admired. The bowling, too, was good, but it proved less destructive than that of Garrison. Philadelphia went in for a second inning, and again Patterson went out for nothing. On his second ball he was bowled by Prentice. Brockle was caught by Austin after making four. When stumps were drawn, with E. W. Clarke and Brown at bat, Philadelphia had made 20 for two wickets. Play will be resumed to morrow.

With regard to the rumor that a house cleaning might be looked for at any moment in amateur athletic circles, it is now stated on authority that no official action is likely to be taken unless some such crisis is forced or led up to by ontside disclosures. As it is unlikely that people not officially concerned will step to where those responsible lesitate, the chances are that the "business" amateur can keep on sowing the wind without any risk of reaping the whirlwind, unless the English papers throw in another broadside. Last fall the British censorewent for M. F. Sweeney, and the comments had been scarcely reprinted here when the great high jumper was protested, and ultimately forced out of the amateur ranks. With the newly built steel grand stand and other extensive improvements to serve as a drawing card, a recordbreaking crowd was expected, but the rainy muggy weather kept the attendance down to about 4,000 and made a mortar bed of the

J. E. McDonald's big, strong-going chestnut in the dash at five furlangs, which opened the neeting. The players knew that he would be thoroughly at home in the sloppy footing, and they sent him to the post an even-money favorite, the speedy Gotham, with Owner McCafferty up, being about the only one of the others that received any support. Tod Sloan took the favorite to the front at the start and kept him there to the end, the big horse simply romping along through the slu h and winning as he liked by four or five lengths.

Thirteen of the nineteen two-year-olds entered in the second race put in an appearance at the post. On public form the chestnut colt Kemp looked like the good thing of the lot, but form counted for little when the favorite got off in the second tier. Lady Mitchell and Lady Louise were lucky enough to get away in front, and they had the race to themselves. The Iroqueis filly outfluished Lady Mitchell in the stretch and won handly. The Keene colt Voter, who had never started before, came out of the bunch at the head of the short homestretch and, running strong to the finish, landed third, only

The Brighton Handicap, which gave promise of a notable contest, dwindled down to a very ordinary four-horse race, only Clifford, Nanki Pooh, the Swain, and Dutch Skater going to the post, With Taralon Clifford public money made him a red-hot favorite, notwithstanding the fact that the day and the sloppy track both operated against the long-striding bay son of Bramble, whose throat is affected in thick weather.

Framble, whose throat is affected in thick weather.

Most of the wise money went on Nanki Pooh, to whom Clifford was conceding nineteen pounds. The race indicated that at even weights Clifford could not have won yesterday. Dogaets, who had the mount on Nanki Pooh, made play for the lead at the end of haif a mile, and easily gave the go-by to the The Swain, who had set the pace. Clifford meanwhile was laboring slightly a couple of lengths back. The decisive stringife came when Taral set sail for the front in rounding the upper turn. Clifford responded as best he could, but Doggett had only to loosen his hold on Nanki Pooh to hold his advantage. In the run through the stretch the handsome brown coit drew away with case and won handlip by three lengths or more.

A high-class two-year-old upset calculations in the First Attempt Stakes by defeating M. F. lower's even-money favorite Suissun and the in the First Attempt Stakes by defeating M. F. Dwyor's even-money favorite Suisun and the seven other youngsters that started. Rodermond, Taranto, and Suisun set a hot pace from the start, rouning the first four furiongs on the sloppy track in 0.49. All were more or less pumped out after this killing drive, and when Challenger made his run in the last furiong Doggett found it easy work to win by three lengths. Rodermond outlasted Suisun in the light for the place.

The sixth race was easy money for Kennel, who went to the post a warm favorite and won as he liked by two lengths. Father Bill Dalyiked Volley's chance at the weights and engaged Doggett to ride. To the Editor of The Sun-Sir: May I be allowed to correct an error which has appeared in many of the daily papers? In the reports published of the awards given at the late bleyce parade at Long Branch it is stated that the Harlem Wheelmen won first prize. This statement is contrary to the fact. The first prize to the visiting club awarded to the Century Wheelmen for line appearance and riding in the Long Branch bicycle parade. July 18, 1806," was won by the Century Wheelmen. The banner is now on exhibition. The second prize was won by the Brooklyn Bicycle Club, and the third, a silver cun, was won by the Century Wheelmen. Trusting you will allow this correction to supear and do justice to the Century Wheelmen, Trusting you will allow this correction to supear and do justice to the Century Wheelmen, first in strength, first in dignity and beauty of appearance, and first in the esteem of an admiring community, I am very truly yours.
